Come to the Party!!

What: A Birthday Party

For: You

When: 11:15 am on Sunday, April 7

Where: Trinity Lutheran Church Gym

We're throwing a Birthday Party—for You!

Can you imagine a gym full of people, and it's EVERYONE'S BIRTHDAY?

That's going to happen at Trinity Lutheran Church on Sunday, April 7.

It's the Sunday after April Fool's Day, and it's Holy Humor Day at Trinity. So, we decided since we NEVER celebrate anyone's birthday on Sundays at Trinity, maybe we should invite EVERYONE to a birthday party. A celebration of YOU!

Following worship on Sunday, April 7, we will assemble into tables based on people's birth month. Fabulous Trinity folks have agreed to make an assortment of cakes (including a separate gluten-free cake so everyone can participate). Around the table, we will decorate, celebrate, and conversate! What do we need from you? Just your wonderful, joyful selves. If you wish to bring something to add to the cake décor, like sprinkles or candles, please do! If you would like to share something unique about yourself with your Birthday Buddies, like a hobby or family remembrance, you are welcome. But remember, there will be cake and frosting. So please don't bring some irreplaceable family heirloom unless it is well protected!

We will decorate cakes and take pictures of each month's group. Then we will slice the cakes and taste the masterpieces. We hope that we can continue this tradition, and watch our monthly inter-generational groups reconnect, year after year!
